Time. It hangs for the bored, eludes the busy, flies by for the young and runs out for the aged.
Time. We crave it. We curse it.
We kill it. We abuse it. Is it a friend? Or an enemy?
We know very little about it.
To know it at all, to know its potential, perhaps we should view it through a filter called memories.

Lacedaemon '80 has been dedicated to Mr. Joseph Sitek for his popularity with the students. He has been a faculty member of SSHS since the school was built, and has been employed by the Superior Board of Education for 35 years.

When I was young, Mama was going to read me a story and I was going to turn the pages and pretend I could read. But she had to wax the bathroom and there wasn't time.

When I was young, Daddy was going to come to school and watch me in a play. I was the fourth Wise Man, in case one got sick, but he was having car trouble and there wasn't time.

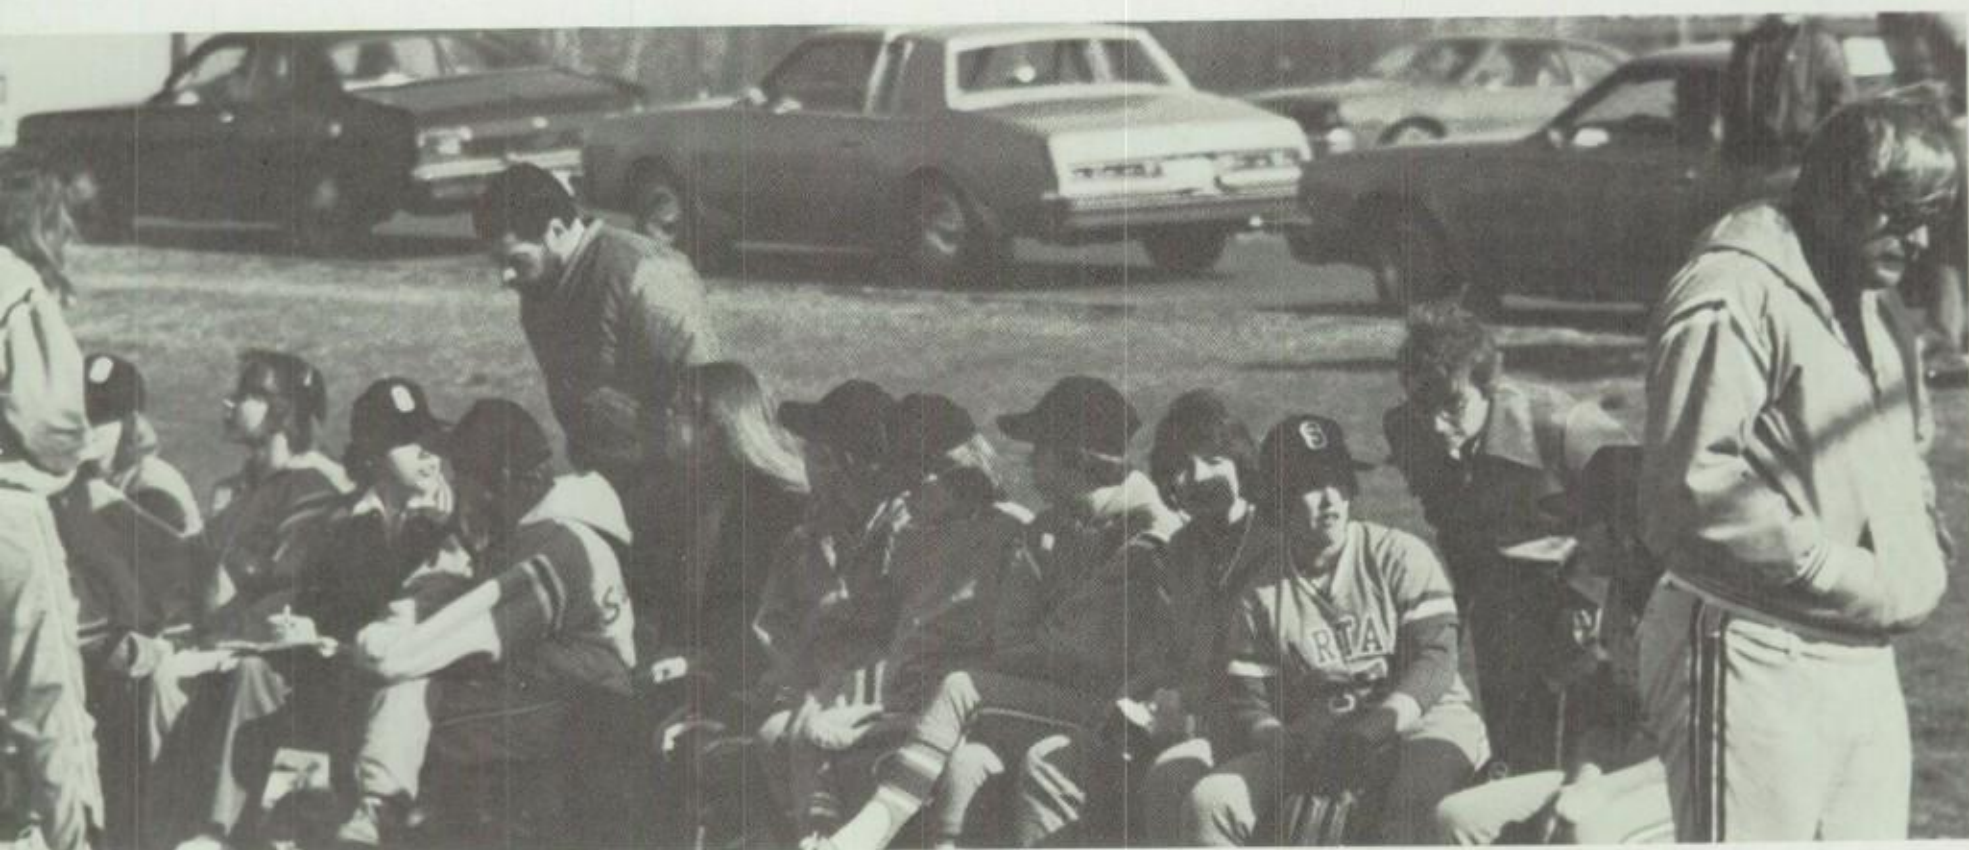

When I was young, Grandma and Granddad were going to me for Christmas to see the expression on my face when I got my first bike, but Grandma didn't know who she could get to feed the dogs and Granddad didn't like the cold weather and, besides, they didn't have the time.

When I was older, Dad and I were going fishing one weekend, just the two of us, and we were going to pitch a tent and fry fish with the heads on them. But at the last minute he had to fertilize the garden and there wasn't time.

People

Seniors

When I was a senior, I was going to be involved in the senior skit for homecoming and get to know the rest of the kids in my graduating class, but I had to go to work and get to that party so there wasn't time.

Memoriam

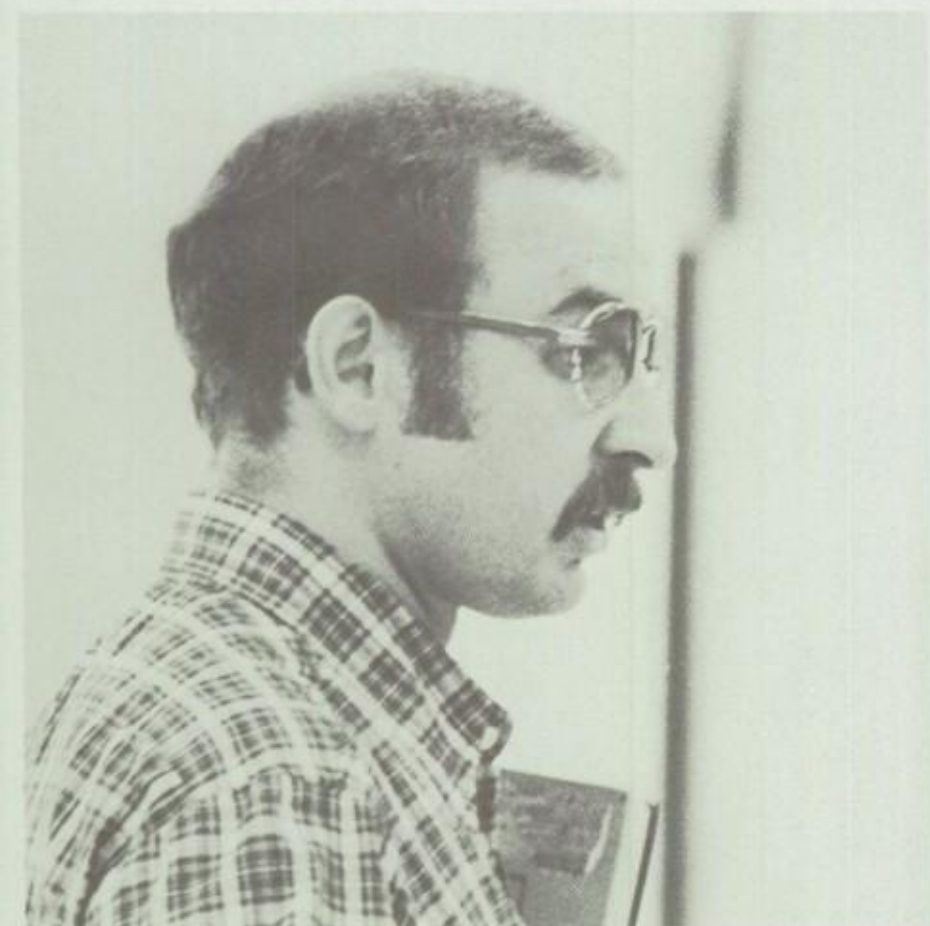

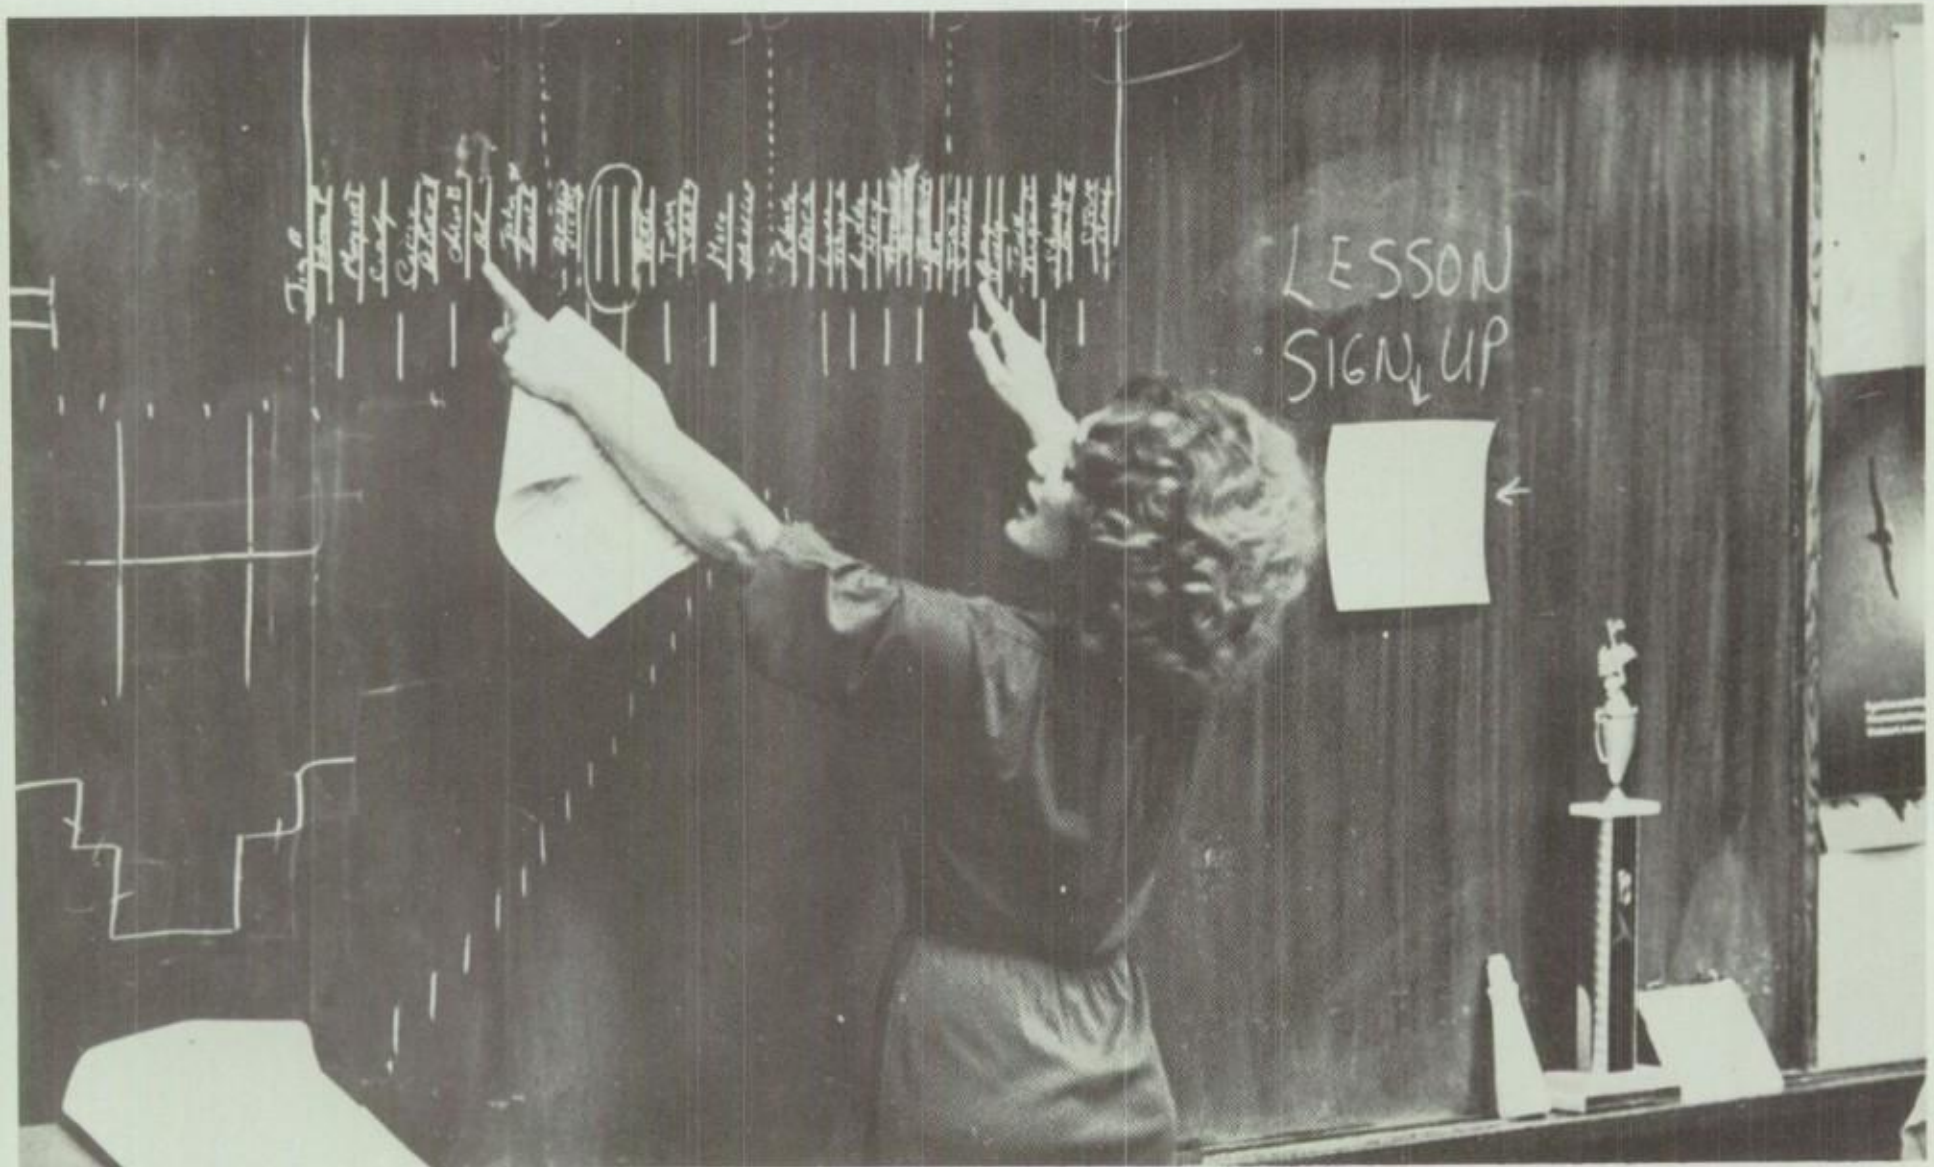

Time cannot steal the treasures
That we carry in our hearts
Nor ever dim the shining thoughts
Our cherished past imparts
And memories of the ones we've loved
Still cast their gentle glow
To grace our days and light our paths
Wherever we may go

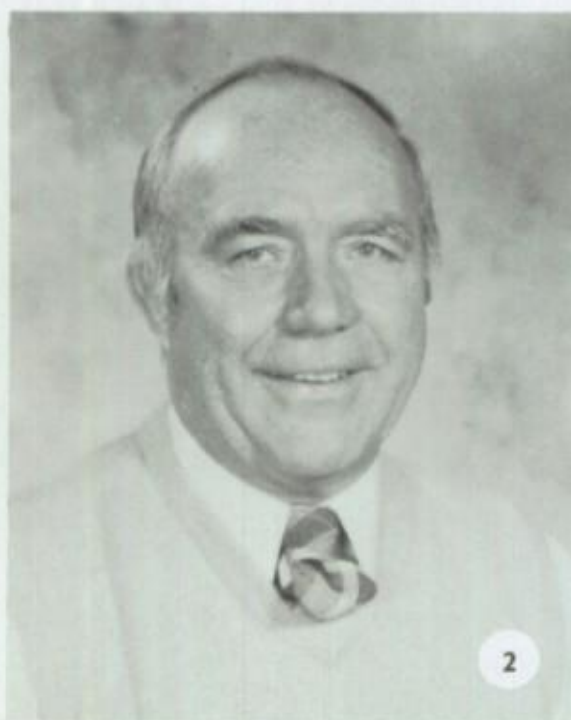

Ron (Bucky) Clark

a silver lining of memories."

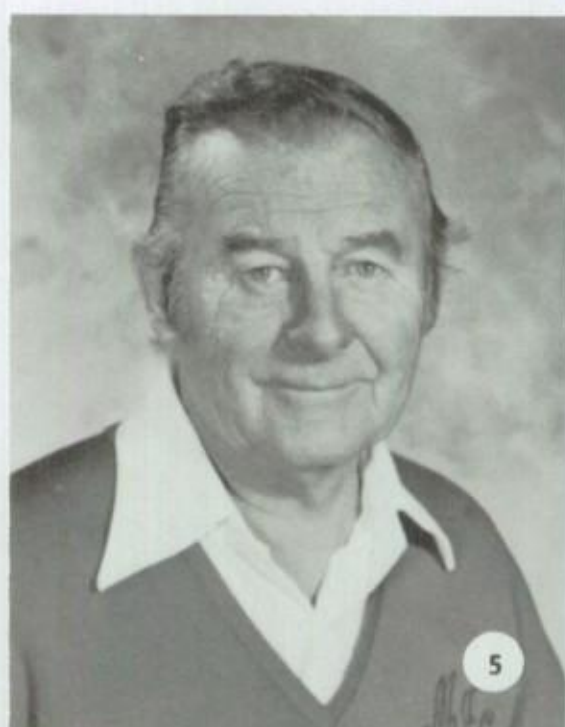

Faculty

As a faculty member, I was always going to get to know my students better, give a little extra help to those who need it, and see students as real people, but there were papers to correct, tests to write and meetings to go to so there wasn't time.

EVENTS

German Trip Includes Animal House

Animal House in German was one of the unusual activities of the students on last year's Germany field trip. The participants included Steve Bauer, Michele Campaigne, Casey Coleman, John Jordon, David Light, Ralph Lindell, Mark Scott, Dan Sears, David Smith, Scott Tollefson, Cathy Fruehauf and Jim Welch. Mr. Leibforth accompanied the group.

After a flight from Minneapolis to Frankfurt, they visited Rildesheim, Heidelberg, Mossingen and Lindau. They also traveled into Austria. Next came visits to Oberammergau and the former concentration camp at Dachau, which is now a museum. A two day stay in Munich followed. The last two cities visited were Dinkelsbuhl and Rothenburg.

Some of the Highlights were tasting German baked goods and feasting at a large Bavarian style banquet, staying with German families for six days, visiting the sights of Munich, the Black Forest and the Alps. There was so much to see and so little time.

1. Front Row: John Jordan, Dave Light, Casey Coleman, Steve Bauer, Ralph Lindell. Row 2: Scott Tollefson, David Smith, Michele Campaigne, Mr. Leibforth. Back Row: Jim Welch, Mark Scott, Dan Sears.

2. The city Hall (Rathaus) is in the University city of Lubingen.

3. The Hohenschuanguau Castle in the town of Fussen was the home of Bavarian kings.

4. The front entrance of Linderhof Castle is shown here. It was the summer estate of King Ludwig II.

Eighty Visit Washington-New York

Over 80 students went on the Washington New York trips, April 28 to May 6th 1979.

Six groups were formed and the students spent six days in each city. In Washington they saw our Senators, Dave Obey and Gaylord Nelson, they had the opportunity to see Congress in session while Senator Ted Kennedy, Massachusetts, was on the floor. They also made trips to the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials the Smithsonian Institute and also went to the Ballet Operas.

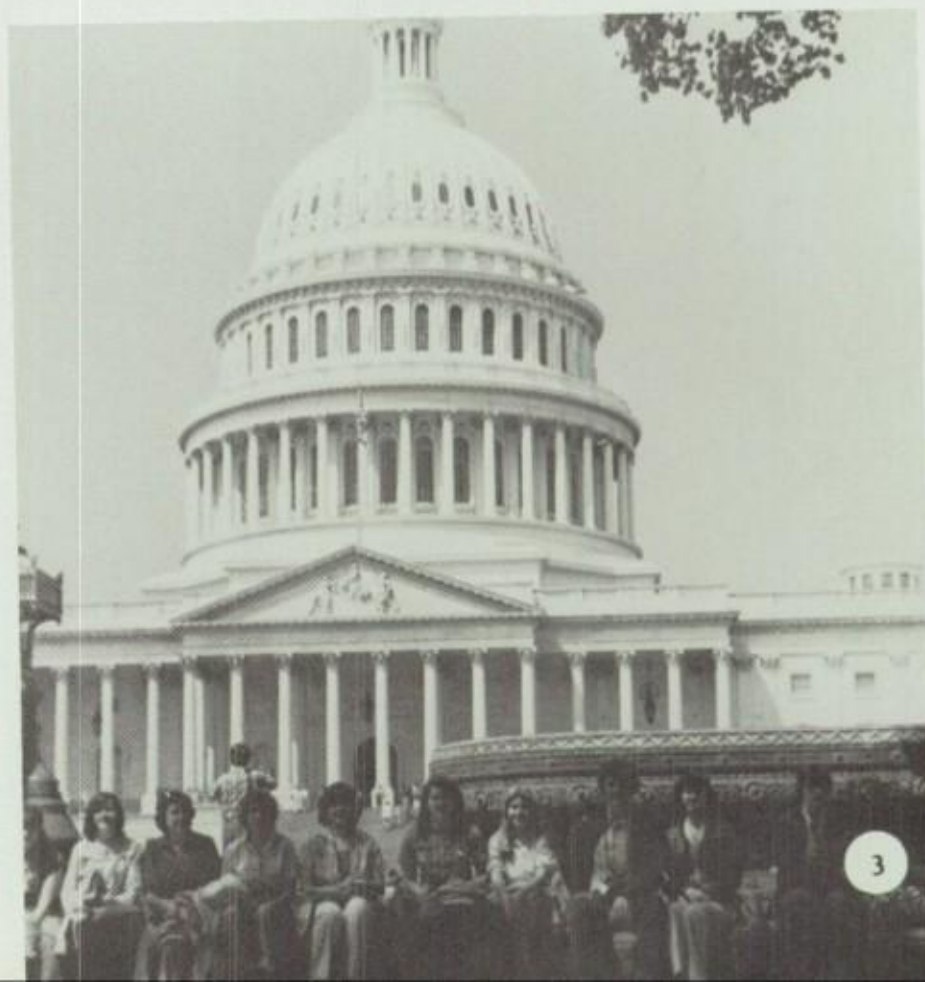

In New York Students went to see Greenwich Village, the Statue of Liberty, Maceys department store, China Town and Broadway Street. Mr. William Rehnstrand and Mrs. Louise Manion were chaperones.

1. Karen Isaacson, Mary Santori Jane Hutchinson, Mr. William Rehnstrand, Steve Jackobs, Mike Johnson, Barb Mahan, Cathy Winek, Diana Pollock, Sandy Wiskerchen, Kim Dhooge, Scott Thompson, Ed Rutledge. Seated at his desk is Senator David Obey.

2. Scott Thompson and Ed Rutledge over look the Upper Bay from the Staten Island Ferry.

3. The group sits in front of the capitol.

Moment By Moment

"Moments by Moments" was the theme for the 78-79 SSHS prom held in the school cafeteria. Cheshire Cat provided music for the couples. Penny Provost, president of the junior class announced Bill Erlanson and Ann Connolly as King and Queen. The prom was set up by the Junior class under the direction of Mr. Bob Glockner.

1. Dina Faldet receives flowers for being on prom court.
2. Mr. Glockner prepares to hang mirror ball before the prom.
3. Cheshire Cat performs at the prom.
4. Students gather in gym before the grand march.

1. Penny Provost, junior class president, speaks at the prom.
 2. Dana Pimper decorates windows before the prom.
 3. Julie Borich and Mike Heytens, King and Queen 1979 prom, are seated along with prom court.

Seasons Come And Seasons Go: Water Show

"Seasons come and Seasons go" was the theme of the 78-79 SSHS water show.

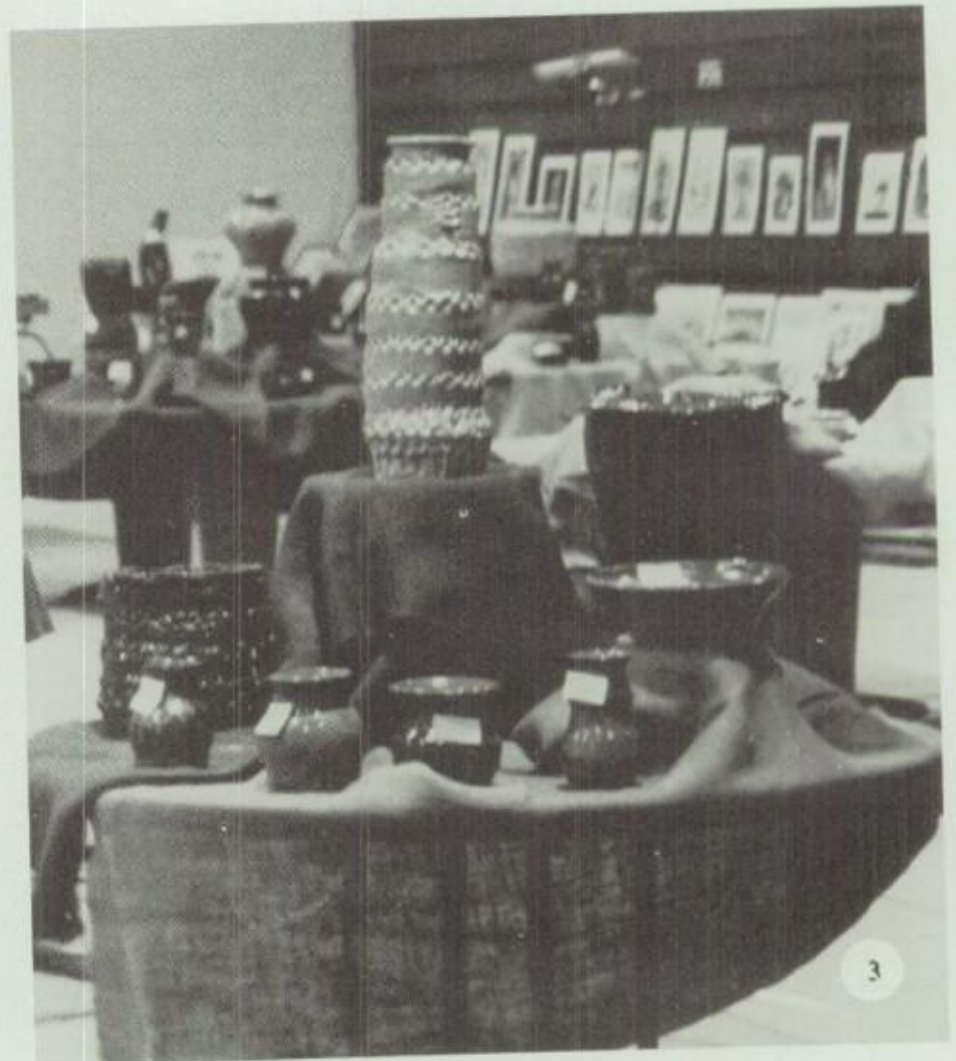

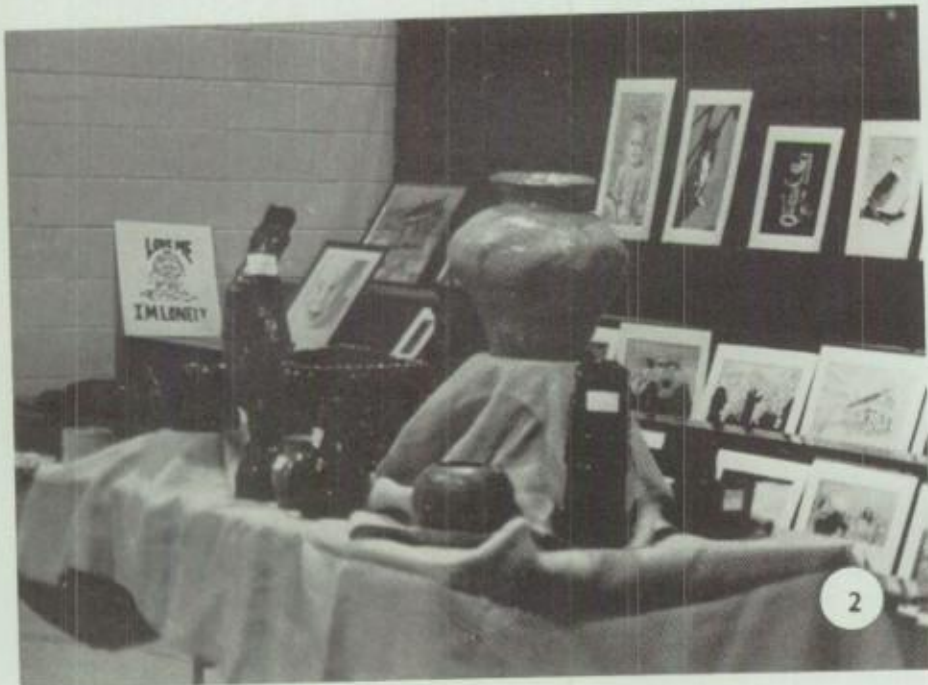

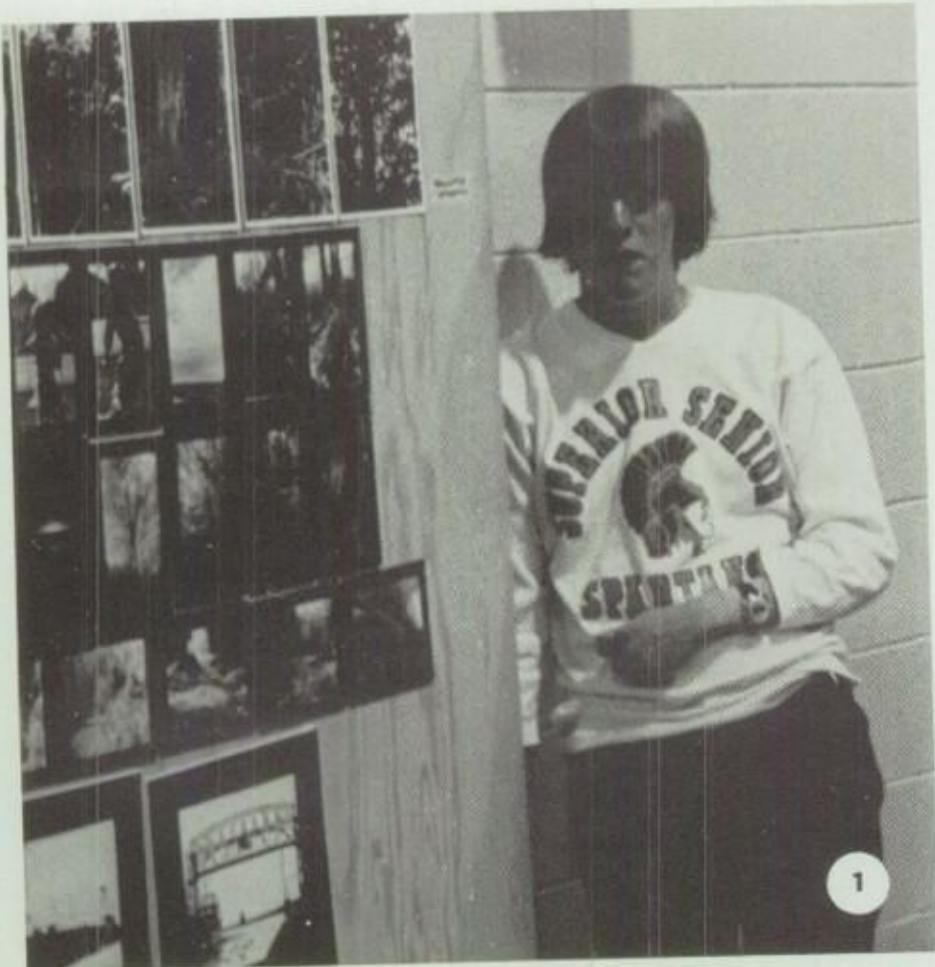

Eighty-five girls and 3 boys, directed by Lisa Sekelsky and Kim Tollefson swam for crowds of 200 to 250 people per show.

The participants started practice in February. Advisors were Mrs. Shirley Gillman and Ms. Sally Cochrane. Mrs. Gillman said, "We wanted to put in under water lighting and have a longer finale but there wasn't time."

1. Watershow Group Front Row: Jane Hutchinson, Wendy Hillila, Ann Zaun, Colleen Flaherty, Carol Santori, Koralie Smith, Kim Tollefson
Row 2: Tina Shariha, Jeanne Amys, Patsy Koski, Robin Higgins, Julie Nystrom, Laurie Murray, Bonnie Johnson, Jeanne Elbon, Penny Kavajecz

2. Mary Lipinski doing her dance solo.

Pottery And Paintings On Display

For the 12th year the SSHS Spartan Fiesta was held in the gym on May 30, 1979.

The show gives students and parents the chance to see paintings, woodworking, pottery and many other arts and crafts. It also gives the student a chance to sell.

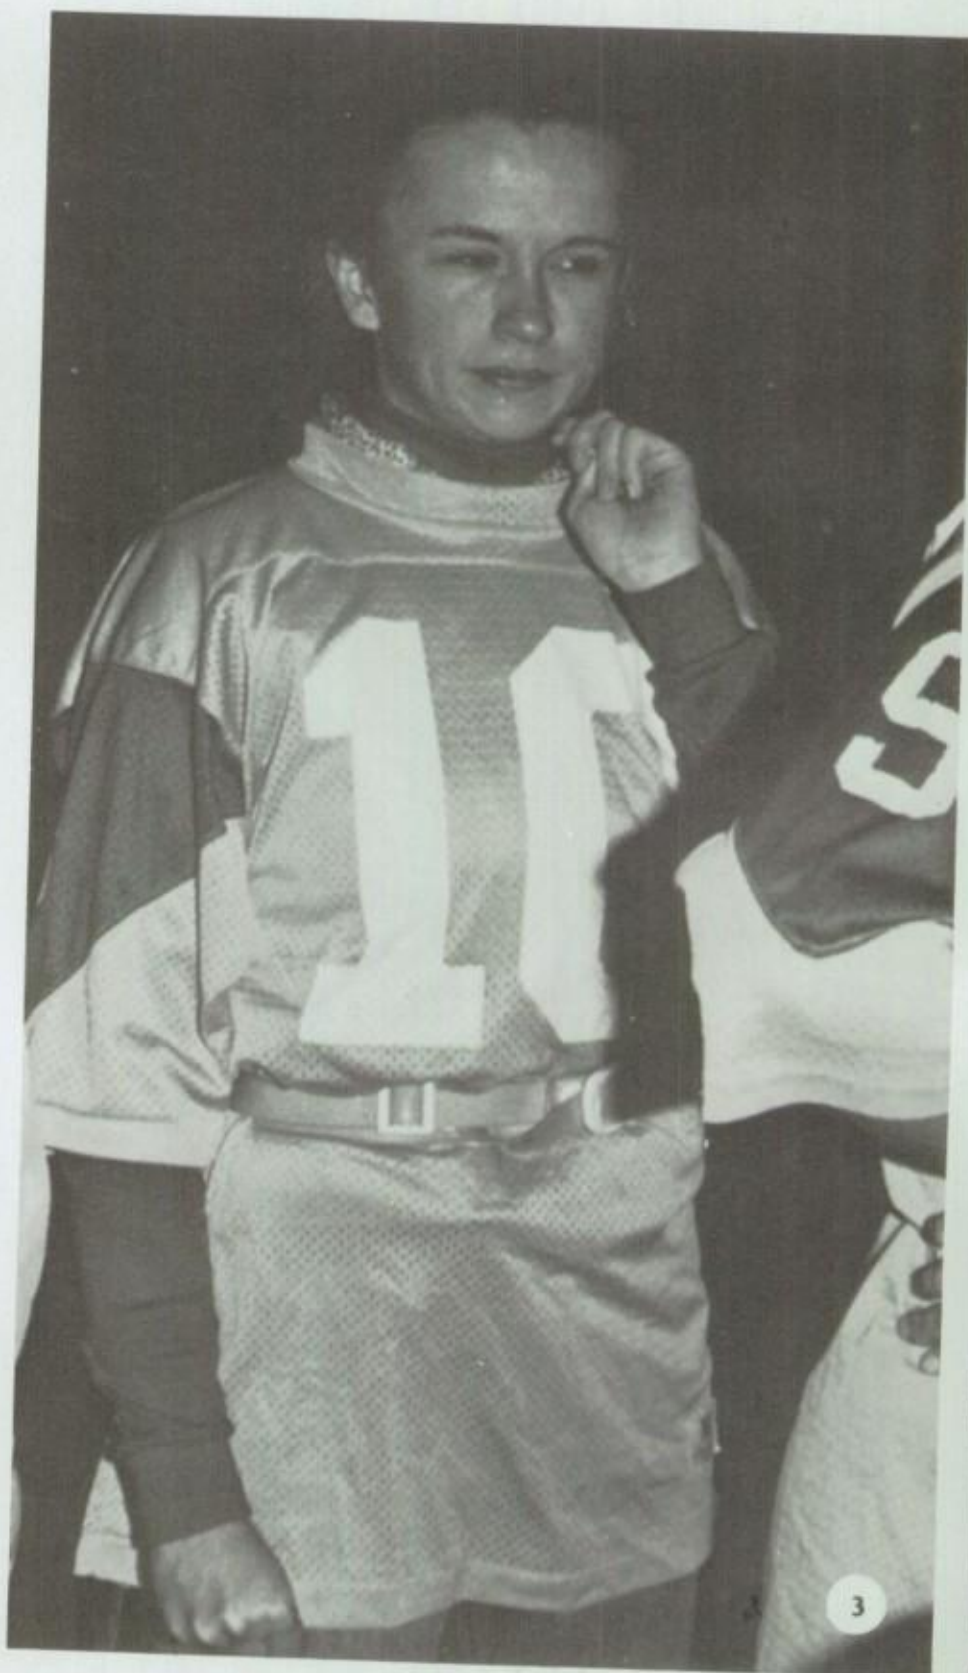

Some works were on exhibit in the Milwaukee Journal Calander competition. According to Mr. Ed Labernik attendance was down from other years. When asked about the Fiesta Labernik replied "I wish more departments could get involved. This year we hope to get the band, Spartan Singers, Home Ec. and others to participate."

1. Gary Wigchers stands by his photography display.
2. Display of art work.
3. Display of art work.

Destroy The Troy:

"Destroy the Troy," Senior High's Homecoming 78, was crowned by Senior High's astounding victory over the Duluth Central Trojan's. The score was 53-7. This was even better than the four touchdown victory promised by Coach Hoff at the assembly on spirit day. October 8-12, Homecoming week, was a busy one. Monday was grub day, Tues. was stripes day, Wed. was dress up day, Thur. was jersey day and Fri. was spirit day. On spirit day there was an assembly, followed by the parade at one o'clock, in which the Drama club, the Junior class and the pep club won awards for their floats. At 7:30 the game took place. At the dance Mary Hinaus was crowned Homecoming queen. Mike Drinkwine as her escort.

SNOW WEEK

Snow Week '80, sponsored by J.S.A. was held from Feb. 11-14. Some of the many contests held during the week were the mile of tape contest, won by the Seniors and the Hide-a-Heart contest won by Ken Aspinwall. Tuesday Feb 22 was Spirit Day celebrated by an assembly with the Stage Band, under the direction of Mrs. Cheryl Goad, cheerleaders, and Pom Pom girls.

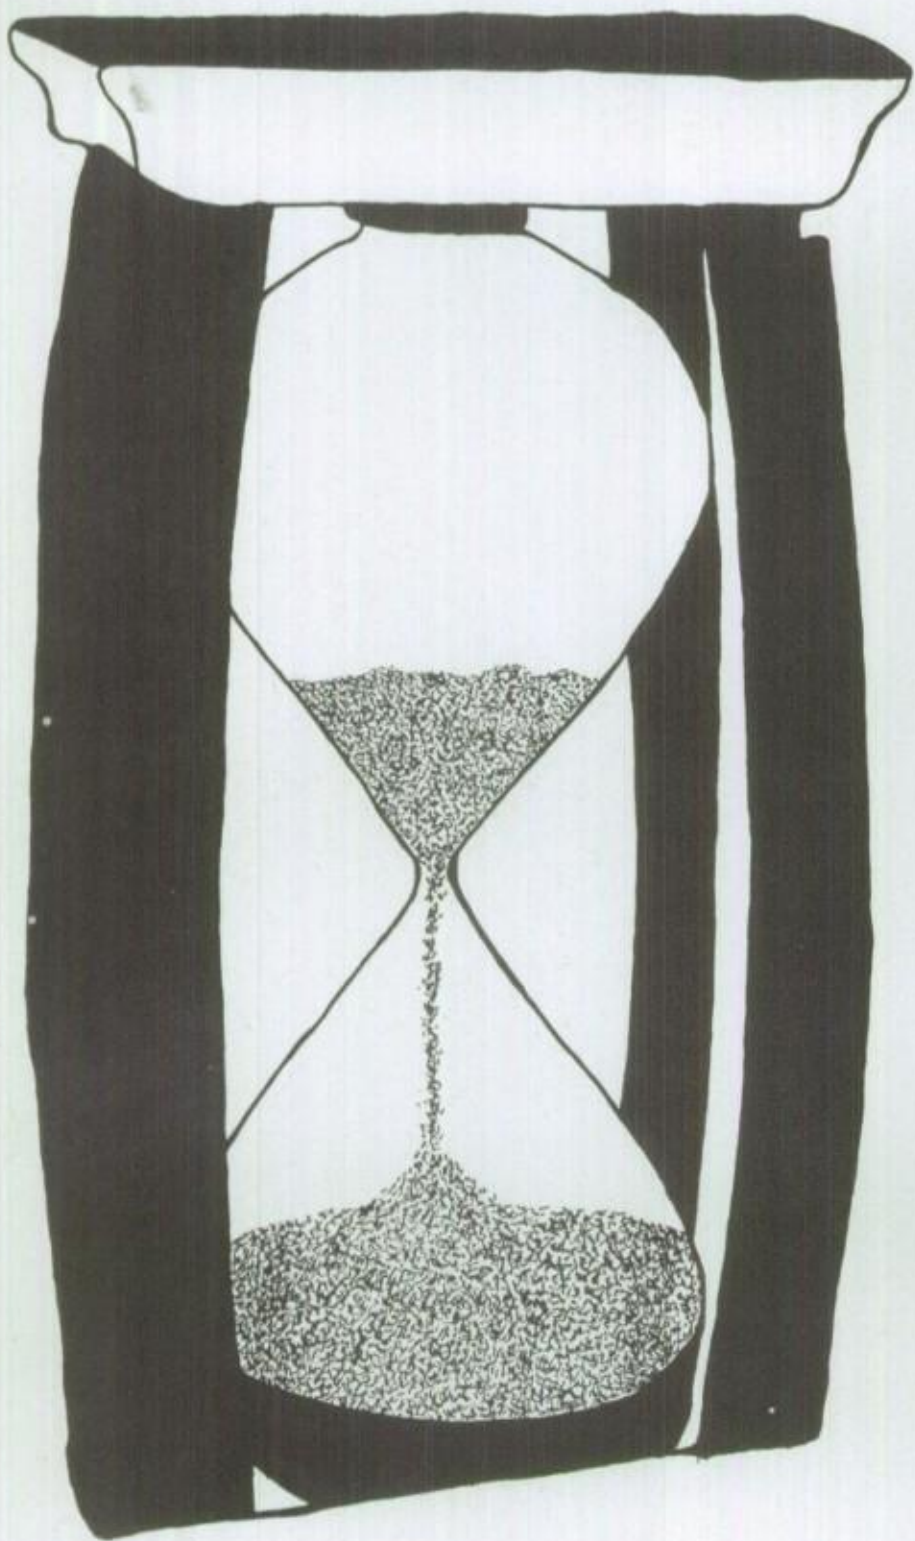

Sports during the week were victorious for most with the Spartan Hockey team defeating Duluth Denfeld; Juniors defeating their opponents in Donkey Basketball; and a victory from the Boys' Swim Team with the largest crowd of spectators this season cheering them on. Royalty: Duke & Duchess - Marty Wiitala and Kim Archam-beault; Prince and Princess - Jim Crawford and Jean Sullivan; King and Queen - Terry Mattson and Lisa Martinson.

1. The Spartan Wrestling Team watches the festivities at the Spirit Day Assembly. Their contribution to Snow week were wins by Joe Brannan, Bruce Sclavi, Frank Lord and Mike Colborn at the sub-regional tournament on Thursday Feb. 14. These wins advanced the four wrestlers to the regional tournament. 2. The Basketball cheerleaders listen while members of the various winter sports are introduced at the assembly. 3. Stage Band puts the audience in the spirit as they enter the gymnasium. 4. Patti McGillis tries for shooting position at the Donkey Basketball game. Opposite: Bruce Sclavi and others were involved in a comedy relay at the assembly where smaller contestants rode the larger contestants "piggy-back".

"The King And I" A Big Success

This year, "The King and I," was chosen as the play to be put on for the big musical production. The musical is one of the three plays put on by the Drama Club.

The story takes place in the 1860's and tells of a true episode in Siamese history. The play is based on the book Anna and the King of Siam. Anna Leonowens is employed by the King to teach the royal children. In the book she tells of her experience in the classroom and with the King, and of her influence upon the affairs of a monarch who had not yet come in contact with Western civilization.

It is not like most other plays because it really has no plot line. It's more an interesting clash between two different cultures, the ancient Orient and the sophisticated West. The personalities of both the King and Anna reflect the cultures they come from and give the added touch to the story.

Besides the Drama Club, many choir and orchestra students participated. The play was a big success this year and was held on March 13-15 at Thorpe Langley Theatre on the UWS campus.

Lacedaemon

The 1980 Lacedaemon yearbook staff got off to a slow start. It was a lot different this year with adviser Mrs. Osterlund teaching a Journalism class at the same time. The 4th hour class met every day in room 126 to work on different parts of the book. This years Theme was decided on by the yearbook staff and the journalism class.

1. Sharon Clausen, Nancy Bee, Jane M. Johnson, Laurie Robinson, Jean Sullivan, Jane A. Johnson, Scott Thompson. Not pictured — Larry Haanen. 2. Front Row: Cherie Rutledge, Roberta Van Horn Row 2: Karen Johnson, Jacki Bender, Erin O'Brien Row 3: Steve Doherty, Jerry Joos, Mary Peterson, Instructor Arlene Osterlund. 3. Yearbook staff at prime time. 4. Our three photographers Harry, Curly and Moe alias Jeff Wittkopf, Cathy Varble, Gary Wigchers.

School Forest-Alternative Class

The School Forest was started in 1965 by Mr. Steven Milchesky and a group of 30 students from Central Junior High. Since the first year, a large class room with a kitchen, office, work room, and a rest room have been built. Students have also built several storage rooms, five dorms, and have cleared over five miles of nature trails. For the past five years students from SSHS have participated in the School Forest program. It is an alternative class in which students acquire both practical and academic knowledge. They get credit for Science, English, Math, and Phy. Ed. One third of their time is spent doing classroom work and the other two-thirds is spent outside.

1. Front Row: Rick See, Dawn Fellen, Jeff Currie, Mike Bergren, Linda Sharp (school aide), Alvin Laurvick. ROW 2: Tim Rose, Steven Milchesky, (retiring school forest coordinator), Brian Lancour, Mike Anderson, Jon Engelbrektson, Joel Ammesmaki, Tim Pineda, Doug Schultz, Eric Koch, David Thomas. Back Row: Jodi Ammesmaki and Robert Rochon. Not Pictured: Doug Harris, Robert Rinnet, Debbie Carrol (teacher). 2. Mike Bergren is in the process of stacking firewood. 3. Joel Ammesmaki and Mike "Space" Anderson are completing academic assignments. 4. Alvin Laurvick and Dawn Fellen are sorting rocks after they were polished.

THERE WAS TIME FOR . . .

Finding our Custodians . . . 1. Jody Tetzlaff and Maytor Bowers take time off to make a new stew. 2. Ernie Olson hard at work. 3. Rick Orloski waxes the Gym Lobby during vacation. 4. Maytor Bowers waits for the wash and ring around the collar. 5. Maytor Bowers sneaks up for a close-up. 6. Alice Berg folds flag after long hard day. 7. Jody Tetzlaff . . . Likes this place after a long hard day. 8. Nancy _____ well she won't give us her last name. 9. Rick Orloski takes time off to ham it up. 10. Gary Peterson trying to look busy 11. Two minutes left and we can go home!

Ernest Olson, Engineer; Alice Berg, Custodian; Clarence Beede, Engineer; Dennis Larsen, Custodian; Paul Chialastri, Custodian; Paul Osterlund, Forman Custodian; Jeffrey Soderlund, Engineer; Maytor Bowers, Engineer; Jody Tetzlaff, Custodian; John Urbanlak, Custodian; Nancy Holt, Custodian; Robert Kennelly, Custodian; Richard Orloski, Custodian; Marvin Ronning, Custodian; Gary Peterson, Custodian;

When I was older, the whole family was always going to pose together for our Christmas card. But my brother had ball practice, my sister had her hair up, Dad was watching the Colts and Mom had to mop the kitchen. There wasn't time.

When I grew up and left home to be married, I was going to sit down with Mom and Dad and tell them I loved them and would miss them. But Hank, he was our best man and a real clown, was honking the horn in front of the house, so there wasn't time.

There Wasn't Time

Time. It hangs heavy for the bored, eludes the busy, flies by for the young and runs out for the aged.

Time. We crave it. We curse it. We kill it. We abuse it. Is it a friend? Or an enemy?

We know very little about it. To know it at all, to know its potential, perhaps we should view it through a filter called memories.

When I was young, Mama was going to read me a story and I was going to turn the pages and pretend I could read. But she had to wax the bathroom and there wasn't time.

When I was young, Daddy was going to come to school and watch me in a play. I was the fourth Wise Man (in case one of the three got sick), but he was having his car tuned and there was no time.

When I was young, Grandma and Grandad were going to come for Christmas to see the expression on my face when I got my first bike, but Grandma didn't know who she could get to feed the dogs and Grandad didn't like the cold weather and, besides, they didn't have time.

When I was older, Dad and I were going fishing one weekend, just the two of us, and we were going to pitch a tent and fry fish with the heads on them. But at the last minute he had to fertilize the garden and there wasn't time.

When I was older, the whole family was always going to pose for our Christmas card. But my brother had ball practice, my sister had her hair up, Dad was watching the Colts and Mom had to mop the kitchen. There wasn't time.

When I grew up and left home to be married, I was going to sit down with Mom and Dad and tell them I loved them and would miss them. But Hank (he was our best man and a real clown) was honking the horn in front of the house, so there wasn't time.
